BANG !

The western revisited and burst by VOLPINEX

Cue a lone-rider crossing the desert into the city where Sheriff Jacques Daniel is in pursuit of El Bandido, an infamous Mexican bank robber...

Compagnie Volpinex will produce a Western film in front of your eyes and project it to the audience live.

Through plastic toys, small cameras, and mixing desks, the two actors create on a table a real shooting studio.

Like any good film it's not without music or sound effects as a musician will play the soundtrack of the western, and make all the sound effects.
